

TESTIMONIALS

“ MDRS, through AbilityWorks, has been a true partner in training and sourcing qualified candidates with differing abilities to our distribution operations. We set very high expectations for them and they always deliver. They operate with the customer in mind while balancing flexibility and innovation with proven results.

– SEPHORA

I would tell them (other businesses) that (working with AbilityWorks) is probably one of the smartest business decisions they can make, especially considering the labor is covered by the state while they are here and they are gaining that experience. You get to try employees out before you hire them on full-time, and some of the people you get through that program are going to be the best employees in your facility. – DPM Fragrance

Honestly the employees provided by MDRS and AbilityWorks are more than capable and give 120%. We have been employing referrals from MDRS and AbilityWorks for the past 30 years with great success. We feel this partnership has been a big part of, and will continue to be a big part of, the success of our company.

AbilityWorks, INC.

Resources that Work for Mississippi Businesses

Business and industry have changed a great deal over the past four decades, and so has AbilityWorks, Inc. Originally known as Allied Enterprises, AbilityWorks has adapted its services to more closely address the changing needs of production in the workplace. Today, AbilityWorks provides completely flexible short-term and long-term resources to a wide spectrum of Mississippi businesses and industries.

Services Tailored to YOUR Needs

Quality services can be tailored to meet your needs and include:

- Collating and Sorting
- Packaging and Handling
- Grounds Maintenance
- Product Reclamation
- Assembly Work
- Janitorial
- Job-Ready Employees

Why Choose AW?

Subcontracting with AbilityWorks makes sense for many reasons:

- Reduces the need to hire seasonal or temporary workers
- Provides great flexibility for start-up operations or new product lines
- Saves floor space: your assembly line can be set up at AbilityWorks
- Reduces the need for full-time hires to do lower-skilled production or piece work
- Saves training time and expense: AbilityWorks trains workers to meet your standards
- Using local resources instead of out-of-state workers saves shipping time and expense
- AbilityWorks rates are very competitive

It's A Win/Win!

AbilityWorks matches well-trained individuals, who have disabilities, with the varying needs of businesses to include manufacturing, assembly, recycling, packaging and maintenance. AbilityWorks clients are trained to meet the quality requirements and production timelines as set forth by business or industry. Through this subcontracting partnership, AbilityWorks clients receive real-world work experience and the businesses we serve receive quality workmanship, timely delivery and, many times, cost savings.
